

I'd just like to express my concern for the possibility of the FCC knocking KLOVE translator stations off the air. KLOVE is the station my family listens to 90% of the time. Their message is positive and appeals to a broad spectrum of listeners-young and old alike. Please do all you can to allow KLOVE to broadcast as they do currently. Thank you.